

AGED BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY RANGE

INTRODUCTION

Auld Douglas McGibbon came to the mainland of Scotland from the Whisky-making Isle of Islay - to Glasgow to be precise - in the late 1890s. It was his grand-daughter's husband who launched the eponymous company in 1947, since when Morag McGibbon's family have been involved, such is the strength of the distaff side of the family.

We are delighted to present our range of Aged Blended Scotch Whiskies:
